

Data Dots – What are they

Hundreds of DataDots are brushed onto various locations on the asset, e.g. A bicycle. The unique code on each DataDot is then stored on a secure National Database, which can be accessed by police if your bicycle is stolen.